Franklin County Family Resource Center Community Resource Directory 2024

Family Resource Center

The Family Resource Center was organized in 1983 by representatives from local human service agencies, local businesses, and concerned community citizens on a one-time grant from the Episcopal Church to develop and implement services for victims of domestic violence. In 1989, the Family Resource Center in conjunction with the Board of Supervisors developed the Franklin County Department of Family Resources to provide more extensive services for victims of domestic violence, making the Family Resource Center one of two domestic violence programs in the state to operate under the auspices of a local government. Today FRC provides shelter and services to victims of domestic violence.

The Family Resource Center Mission Statement

To promote safe and healthy living environments for Franklin County families in crisis who are victims of domestic violence.

Our Philosophy

Our philosophy at the Franklin County Family Resource Center (FCFRC) is to provide shelter and services to victims of domestic violence in our community. By providing services to these victims, it is our intention to reduce the incidents of domestic violence in our county. It is also our philosophy, to promote community awareness and support for victims who enter the system. FCFRC strives to enhance victim's self-esteem, self-worth, and enhances empowerment to break free from the cycle of violence. The FCFRC staff will aim to work in partnership and utilize other community resources to best handle each victim's situation uniquely. FCFRC will provide victims with case management, hotline services, support groups, personal and court advocacy, information and referral, children's programs, public education and awareness, resource library, employment and financial referrals.

About This Book

This book is divided into two sections. The first section pages 6-43 are an easy reference section, for quick reference to names and numbers of organizations who provide assistance to Franklin County Residents. The second section of this guide contains more information about each organization and some helpful information about services provided and eligibility guidelines for those services. The best source of information is always straight from the organization itself. If you have any questions, call the organization you are interested in directly through the number we have provided.

Thank you.
Franklin County Family Resource Center Staff
